Minnesota's Kent Patterson Named National College Hockey Player of the Month Golden Gophers' Kyle Rau Tabbed as Rookie of the Month

WAKEFIELD, Mass. – University of Minnesota goaltender Kent Patterson, who posted a 7-1-0 record, a 1.74 goals-against average, a .939 saves percentage and a nation's best four shutouts in eight starts between the pipes, is the Hockey Commissioners' Association National Division I Player of the Month for October.

A 6-1, 196-pound senior from Plymouth, Minn., Patterson began the 2011-12 season with three straight home shutouts, blanking Sacred Heart twice (9-0 and 6-0 on Oct. 7 & 8) and Vermont once (6-0 on Oct. 21). He then picked up his first road shutout on Oct. 28 with a 5-0 triumph at league rival Alaska Anchorage. A perfect 4-0-0 on the road, Patterson's seven victory-month also includes a WCHA sweep at defending national champion Minnesota Duluth on Oct. 14-15 when he posted back-to-back, career-high, 46-save performances.

Named WCHA co-Defensive Player of the Week twice in the month, he surrendered just nine even-strength goals in eight games, with five coming on the power-play. Patterson's four shutouts in October make him the third recorded Minnesota goaltender to shutout an opponent more than three times in the same month by himself, joining Robb Stauber in 1988 and George Clausen in February of 1934. His four shutouts also are one shy of the UM season record of five, set by Stauber in 1987-88 when he won the Hobey Baker Memorial Award.

Kyle Rau, a freshman forward at the University of Minnesota, is the choice as HCA National Rookie of the Month for October.

A 5-8, 172-pound freshman from Eden Prairie, Minn., Rau produced 13 scoring points (7g, 6a) in eight games in the month of October, notching at least one point in seven games. He had six multiple-point games and scored at least one goal in six of those eight games.

Rau, who is the team's first line left wing, leads all freshmen nationally in both scoring and goals, has four power-play goals, three game-winners and is tied for the team lead with a +12 plus/minus rating. He was named the WCHA Rookie of the Month on Oct. 18 after helping the Golden Gophers to a road sweep over defending national champion Minnesota Duluth.

Bulldogs University of Minnesota Duluth

The defending NCAA champion Bulldogs will put their six-game unbeaten streak (4-0-2) on the line this weekend when they host the University of Alaska Anchorage in a pair of WCHA engagements ... It marks the start of a four-game homestand for UMD, which, after a Nov. 19 clash with Minnesota State University, Mankato, will not return to AMSOIL Arena until Jan. 20 ... UMD skated out of Denver with three of a possible four points last weekend following up a 3-3 draw Friday night with a 4-0 victory over the eighth-ranked Pioneer the next evening ... Three different Bulldogs scored in the opener, including senior defenseman Scott Kishel, who also added an assist, as UMD rallied from a 3-1 deficit and outshot the Pioneers 46-33 on the night ... On Saturday, senior center Travis Oleksuk collected a pair of goals and senior goaltender Kenny Reiter rejected all 29 shots Denver sent his way for his second shutout in three games ... During its six-game unbeaten streak, the Bulldogs have outscored the opposition 21-9 while killing off 24 of 25 power-play attempts (96.0%) ... With a goal and two assist over the weekend in Denver, senior team captain Jack Connolly hiked his career scoring harvest to a nation-leading 150 points (50g, 100a) ... That moved the 2010-11 Hobey Baker Memorial Award finalist into 20th place on UMD's all-time scoring charts, two points behind the No. 19 occupant, center Tim Stapleton (2002-06) and three points behind Monty Jones (1973-77) ... Connolly, the country's top returning scorer from a year ago (he finished third among NCAA skaters with a career-high 59 points), has been a model of consistency when it comes to offensive contributions ... Case in Point: Since the start of the 2009-10 season, he has been held pointless for more than one game only once (Jan. 23 and Jan. 29, 2010) ... Connolly, who has suited up in all 135 outings over the past four seasons, became just the 14th Bulldog ever to reach the 100 mark for a career ... The current owner of an eight-game scoring streak, he is second in the WCHA in overall power-play points with ninth, is tied for sixth in assists (9) and is tied for seventh in points (13) ... Connolly, a member of the All-WCHA First Team and WCHA All-Academic Team the past two winters, is just the second two-time All-American the Bulldogs have ever had in their lineup (defenseman Norm Maciver, in 1985-86, was the other) ... This past Saturday night in Denver, UMD was held without a power-play goal and failed to outscore the opposition for the first time this season ... Senior Travis Oleksuk has racked up a WCHA-leading nine goals this season, three of which came at the expense of Denver last weekend ... The Thunder Bay, Ont., product, who is a plus-6 on the year, has picked up at least one point in all but one of UMD's 10 outings this season ... Oleksuk and junior left winger Mike Seidel have combined to score 38.9% of UMD's goals ... Seidel has five tallies to his 2011-12 credit, including a team-leading three on the power-play, but has been blanked in that department in each of the past four games ... UMD is now unbeaten in 22 of its 27 games away from Duluth since the start of the 2010-11 season (16-5-6) ... Kenny Reiter's 4-0 shutout last Saturday night against the Pioneers was the eighth of his career, which is one shy of the school record held by All-American Alex Stalock ... Reiter, blanked the Pioneers for the final 101:09 of the weekend and, for the second time in three games, stopped a penalty shot (by Denver's Jason Zucker with 4:30 to go in the second period Saturday) ... Over the course of UMD's six-game unbeaten streak, he has crafted a 1.46 goals-against average and a .944 saves percentage in six starts ... Reiter, a three-time WCHA All-Academic Team pick, has compiled a nifty 34-19-7 career record with the Bulldogs ... That translates into a .625 winning percentage, the second best mark in club history behind All-American Rick Kost's .753 figure (60-18-2 between 1983-85) ... Going back to the start of the 2011 NCAA playoffs, the Pittsburgh, Pa., native has lost just twice in his last 13 appearances (9-2-2) ... After giving up eight power-plays in 18 opportunities to the opposition during the first two weekends of the 2011-12 season, UMD has allowed just one goal (at Providence College on Oct. 22) in 25 man-advantage chances since ... Senior Brady Lamb, who will bring a personal-best four-game scoring streak into Friday night's clash with Alaska Anchorage, ranks third among

Weekly Team Notebooks con't

WCHA defensemen in points with 10 and has managed at least a goal or an assist in eight of UMD's 10 outings to date ... Over the last four seasons, UMD has gone 13-4-17 in overtime games (a .632 winning percentage), picking up a school-record seven of those wins one year ago ... Senior defenseman Scott Kishel picked up his first goal as a Bulldog last Friday night (in his 56th lifetime game) and also helped set up another score for the first two-point night of his career ... Kishel's whose 10 points this season are bettered by only five other WCHA blueliners at the moment, has already skated in three more games this year than he did all of last season ... The Bulldogs are 8-7-2 at AMSOIL Arena since that $80-million, 6,726-seat facility opened on Dec. 30, 2010 ... Center/left winger Caleb Herbert, who was credited with an assist in the 4-0 triumph at Denver last Saturday, is tied for fourth in the WCHA rookie scoring race with seven points ... Junior defenseman Wade Bergman tops the 2011-12 Bulldogs in plus-minus rating (+7) and is a plus +20 for his career ... That's second only to Jack Connolly's +35 figure among current Bulldogs.

Mavericks Minnesota State University

Freshman defenseman Zach Palmquist had three assists in last Saturday's 6-3 win at #16 Michigan Tech in marking the first time a MSU freshman defenseman had three assists in a game since Steve Wagner accomplished the feat in a 7-3 win over Wisconsin Feb. 25, 2006 ... WCHA Men's Tie-Breaking Procedures - For Playoff Purposes Only

At the conclusion of the regular season, teams will be ranked by the number of points accumulated. If two teams are tied for first place, they will be declared co-WCHA champions.

The first round of the WCHA's post-season tournament will be a best-of-three games format at the home site of the teams ranked higher in the final regular season standings. All 12 teams participate in the first round of the tournament. First round playoff pairings will be: #1 rank vs #12 rank, #2 rank vs #11 rank, #3 vs #10, #4 vs #9, #5 vs #8, and #6 vs #7.

Following the six first round series, the six winning teams will be re-seeded #1 thru #6 according to their standings in the final WCHA in-season competition and will advance to the WCHA Final Five.

In the event that ties are encountered in the determination of WCHA ranking or designation of home teams for playoff purposes, the following procedures will be used in the order given to break the ties:

- If two or more teams are tied, head-to-head competition during the regular (conference) season will be used to break the tie.
- If two or more teams are still tied after (a), the highest seed will go to the team with the most WCHA (conference) wins during the regular season.
- If two or more teams played a four-game series during the regular season and the teams have the same win-loss records for those series and the same number of WCHA wins, the team having the least number of goals scored against it in the four-game series shall have the higher rank. If two or more teams played a two-game series during the regular season, proceed to tie-breaker d).
- If two or more teams are still tied after applying the provisions of (a), (b) and (c), the team having the greatest "winning margin" during the regular season will have the higher rank. Winning margin = WCHA goals for during the regular season minus WCHA goals against.
- Games played against WCHA opponents in holiday tournaments will not be counted in the determinations.
