NCAA Div. 1 Men's Ice Hockey Finalists Announced for 2012 Lowe's Senior CLASS Award Group of 10 Includes UMD All-American Jack Connolly

OVERLAND PARK, KS – University of Minnesota Duluth All-American forward Jack Connolly is among the ten NCAA® men's ice hockey student-athletes who excel both on and off the ice and were selected as finalists on February 1 for the 2012 Lowe's Senior CLASS Award. To be eligible for the award, a student-athlete must be classified as an NCAA Div. 1 senior and have notable achievements in four areas of excellence – community, classroom, character and competition. The complete list of finalists follows this release.

An acronym for Celebrating Loyalty and Achievement for Staying in School®, the Lowe's Senior CLASS Award focuses on the total student-athlete and encourages students to use their platform in athletics to make a positive impact as leaders in their communities.

Connolly, a 2010-11 Hobey Baker Memorial Award finalist and the nation's top returning scorer from a year ago, ranks first in the WCHA in scoring overall and second nationally with 55 points. A member of both the All-WCHA First Team and All-WCHA Academic Team the past two winters, Connolly is just the second two-time All-American the Bulldogs have ever had in their lineup (defenseman Norm Maciver, in 1985-86, was the other). For his collegiate career, Connolly has scored 64 goals and 128 assists for 192 points while playing in all 161 games over the past three-plus seasons.

The finalists were chosen by a media committee from the list of 20 candidates announced in October. Nationwide fan voting begins immediately to determine the winner. Fans are encouraged to vote on either the Lowe's Senior CLASS Award website or the Lowe's Senior CLASS Award Facebook fan page through March 18. Fan votes will be combined with media and Div. 1 men's ice hockey head coaches' votes to determine the winner. Lowe's will then announce the Senior CLASS Award® winner during the 2012 NCAA Men's Frozen Four, which will be held April 5-7 in Tampa, Fla. ## Minnesota Duluth

With the 2011-12 regular season in the books, the defending NCAA champion Bulldogs will now set their collective sights on the WCHA playoffs and Minnesota State-Mankato, which they will host in a best-of-three first round series beginning Friday at AMSOIL Arena ... UMD went 3-0-1 against the Mavericks this season and swept them in Duluth (5-2 and 7-3) back on Nov. 18-19 ... In the last 14 meetings between the two intrastate rivals, the Bulldogs have suffered just one loss (3-1 on Feb. 18, 2011 in Mankato), going 11-1-2 ... In addition, UMD is 7-0-1 at home versus Minnesota State since dropping a 7-1 decision on Jan. 28, 2006 ... The Bulldogs own a 22-10-2 lifetime record in WCHA home playoff games, which includes a 2-1-0 mark against Minnesota State ... UMD's second-place finish in the WCHA standings this season is its best since the 2003-04 season (when the Bulldogs also placed second) ... The Bulldogs came away with one point in their regular season finale series at St. Cloud State last weekend, skating to a 3-3 tie with the Huskies on Saturday after falling 2-1 the previous night ... Junior left winger Keegan Flaherty accounted for the lone Bulldog goal in the opener while rookie left winger Caleb Herbert, sophomore right winger J.T. Brown and senior defenseman Brady Lamb each scored once on Saturday ... The Bulldogs outshot the Huskies 69-45 on the weekend, but held the lead just one time (3-2 for 14:15 in the rematch) during the entire two-game set ... UMD will enter the WCHA playoffs armed with the top-scoring offense in the country (3.67 goals per night) and the nation's second-best winning percentage (.697) ... The Bulldogs have reached the 22-victory plateau for the fourth consecutive year (the first time that has happened since the mid-1980s) and are at home for the opening round of the WCHA playoffs for a third straight season ... Two-time All-American center Jack Connolly wrapped up the 2011-12 regular season as the WCHA scoring champion ... Connolly, who finished second in the league's scoring race one year ago, racked up 43 points (16g, 27a) in WCHA play – six more than his three closest competitors (which included teammate J.T. Brown) and the most by any player in six years ... He became the sixth Bulldog to top the WCHA in points, joining the likes of Junior Lessard (2003-04), Chris Marinucci (1993-94), Derek Plante (1992-93), Bill Watson (1984-85 and 1983-84) and Keith "Huffer" Christiansen (1966-67) ... A finalist for both the 2010-11 Hobey Baker Memorial Award and this year's Lowe's Senior CLASS Award, Connolly remains second nationally in both points (55, one back of frontrunner Spencer Abbott of Maine) and is first in assists (37, which ties him with two other) and in power-play scoring (29 points) ... For his career, he has amassed 64 goals and 128 assists for 192 points, which puts him in a tie for 9th place (with 1983-84 Hobey Baker Memorial Award winner Tom Kurvers) on UMD's all-time scoring charts and four points behind the No. 8 occupant, the legendary Keith "Huffer" Christiansen (1963-67) ... Those 192 lifetime points are a hefty 30 more than the next closest active NCAA skater (Yale's Brian O'Neill) ... And talk about consistency: Going back to the start of his sophomore season, Connolly has been held pointless for more than one game in a row only twice (six weeks ago when he was blanked in both ends of the Michigan Tech series, which terminated his school single-season record 22-game scoring streak, and on Jan. 23 and Jan. 29, 2010) ... In the the four outings he's gone without a goal or an assists this winter, the Bulldogs are a mere 0-3-1 ... Connolly, the nation's top returning scorer from a year ago (he finished third in the NCAA with a career-high 59 points), was a member of both the All-WCHA first team and WCHA All-Academic Team the past two winters and is just the second two-time All-American the Bulldogs have ever had in their lineup (defenseman Norm Maciver, in 1985-86, was the other) ... In addition, he has skated in a UMD-record 161 consecutive games since joining the Bulldog program ... Connolly is the first UMD skater to post back-to-back 50-point seasons since Hobey Baker Memorial Award recipient Chris Marinucci turned the trick in 1993-94 (61) and 1992-93 (77) ... Alternate team captain Travis Oleksuk, who had his personal-best eight-game scoring streak snapped in UMD's 2-1 loss at St. Cloud State last Friday, has accumulated 16 points (5g, 11a) in his last 10 outings ... Last month, Oleksuk became the 54th member of UMD's century club and he now has 45 goals and 65 assists for 110 points in 129 lifetime outings) ... The Thunder Bay, Ontario native ranks fifth in the NCAA in scoring (a career-high 48 points), second in plus-minus rating (+23) and is tied for eighth in goals (21, another personal high) ... ### WCHA Men's Tie-Breaking Procedures - For Playoff Purposes Only

At the conclusion of the regular season, teams will be ranked by the number of points accumulated. If two teams are tied for first place, they will be declared co-WCHA champions.

The first round of the WCHA's post-season tournament will be a best-of-three games format at the home site of the teams ranked higher in the final regular season standings. All 12 teams participate in the first round of the tournament. First round playoff pairings will be: #1 rank vs #12 rank, #2 rank vs #11 rank, #3 vs #10, #4 vs #9, #5 vs #8, and #6 vs #7.

Following the six first round series, the six winning teams will be re-seeded #1 thru #6 according to their standings in the final WCHA in-season competition and will advance to the WCHA Final Five.

In the event that ties are encountered in the determination of WCHA ranking or designation of home teams for playoff purposes, the following procedures will be used in the order given to break the ties:

- If two or more teams are tied, head-to-head competition during the regular (conference) season will be used to break the tie.
- If two or more teams are still tied after (a), the highest seed will go to the team with the most WCHA (conference) wins during the regular season.
- If two or more teams played a four-game series during the regular season and the teams have the same win-loss records for those series and the same number of WCHA wins, the team having the least number of goals scored against it in the four-game series shall have the higher rank. If two or more teams played a two-game series during the regular season, proceed to tie-breaker d).
- If two or more teams are still tied after applying the provisions of (a), (b) and (c), the team having the greatest "winning margin" during the regular season will have the higher rank. Winning margin = WCHA goals for during the regular season minus WCHA goals against.
- Games played against WCHA opponents in holiday tournaments will not be counted in the determinations.
