WCHA Issues One-Game Suspension to Northern Michigan's Higby

MADISON, Wis. – The men's Western Collegiate Hockey Association today announced a one-game suspension to Northern Michigan University hockey player Erik Higby as a result of his actions in the February 21 game against Michigan Tech.

Higby's suspension was determined after a review by the league office of a slashing major at the 20:00 mark of the second period and comes under the WCHA's Supplementary Discipline Policy and Procedures. Higby was assessed a 5:00 major for slashing at the time of the incident.

Higby will be required to serve the one-game suspension in Northern Michigan's next regularly scheduled contest on Saturday, February 22 against Michigan Tech.
