The men's Western Collegiate Hockey Association and Commissioner Bill Robertson today (July 10) announced the 2014-15 composite schedule, highlighted by the return of the WCHA Final Five next March to Xcel Energy Center in Saint Paul, MN.

The upcoming campaign, which launches the weekend of October 3-5, promises to build on the momentum of a 2013-14 season that featured one of the most highly-competitive races in the 63-year history of the WCHA. A dramatic final regular season weekend of March 7-8 (2014) saw Ferris State capture the conference regular season championship and MacNaughton Cup by one point over runner-up Minnesota State, Bowling Green clinch the fourth and final first round home playoff spot, and all four first-round league playoff pairings determined. An extraordinarily tight race also found Alaska and Bowling Green tied for third with 30 points each, Michigan Tech just one point back of the Nanooks and Falcons in fifth with 29 points, Alaska Anchorage just a single point back of Tech in sixth with 28 points, Northern Michigan one point back of the Seawolves in seventh with 27 and Bemidji State and Lake Superior State tied for eighth with 24 points. Alabama Huntsville finished 10th with five points.

"We are thrilled about the prospects of the men's WCHA and our member teams on the national scene in 2014-15," said Robertson. "There's no question the new-look WCHA raised more than a few eyebrows last season, with our league race being so tightly-contested, the battle for the championship and home playoff berths going down to the final weekend, and both regular season champion Ferris State and playoff champion Minnesota State competing in the national tournament. We also had the Bulldogs ranked No. 6 in the final polls and the Mavericks ranked No. 12.

"We know our teams can compete with anybody in the country night in and night out, and we expect the new season will see that momentum carry over. You can definitely sense the excitement among our teams, our coaches, players and administrators, and our fans and their communities.

“The return of the WCHA Final Five to Xcel Energy Center and the City of Saint Paul is also a big plus for us. The league playoff championship has had tremendous success there in the past and it is our goal to both build on that tradition while also forging a family-friendly and affordable weekend of great collegiate championship hockey in a spectacular setting. We are working on a number of Final Five-related initiatives throughout the off-season relating to ticketing, sponsorships and television that can play a significant role in our success.” Robertson, who succeeded longtime Commissioner Bruce McLeod, who retired June 30, is a proven, passionate leader and communicator with a history of developing sports organizations and events across the country, including his previous work with the WCHA Final Five while serving as Vice President of Communications and Broadcasting for the NHL’s Minnesota Wild and parent company Minnesota Sports & Entertainment from 1999-2011.

The men’s WCHA, which will again showcase member team home games video streamed live and on demand, and with most in High Definition, via its partnership with America ONE Sports throughout the regular season, will again feature a 140-game conference slate that culminates in the regular season championship and awarding of the MacNaughton Cup, followed by an eight-team post-season tournament consisting of four, best-of-three first round playoff series at the home arenas of the top four finishers, and then the WCHA Final Five championship next March 20-21 in Saint Paul. The winning team at the WCHA Final Five receives the Broadmoor Trophy and the league’s automatic berth to the NCAA tournament.

“Our video streaming partnership with America ONE Sports brought notable dividends to the league and our member teams in year one,” said Robertson, “and we look forward to again providing our fans around the world with WCHA hockey live and on demand throughout the season.”

The 140-game conference schedule will again feature 28 games per team, with each club playing 14 league home games and 14 away league games. Teams play five other league members four times each and four others two times each. League openers, by team, are: Alabama Huntsville (Oct. 17-18 vs Bowling Green), Alaska Anchorage (Oct. 31-Nov. 1 vs Lake Superior), Alaska (Oct. 31-Nov. 1 at Bemidji State), Bemidji State (Oct. 31-Nov. 1 vs Alaska), Bowling Green (Oct. 17-18 at Alabama Huntsville), Ferris State (Oct. 24-25 vs Michigan Tech), Lake Superior (Oct. 4-5 vs Michigan Tech), Michigan Tech (Oct. 4-5 at Lake Superior), Minnesota State (Oct. 24-25 vs Alabama Huntsville), and Northern Michigan (Oct. 24-25 at Lake Superior). The WCHA has had a 28 games per team conference schedule in place since 1997-98.

Defending conference regular season champion Ferris State and defending conference playoff champion Minnesota State, the two teams that finished 1-2 in the league race a season ago, meet four times – with both series coming in January. The Bulldogs host the Mavericks on Jan. 16-17 in Big Rapids followed by a Jan. 30-31 set in Mankato. Ferris State went 20-6-2 for 42 points in 28 WCHA encounters a year ago while Minnesota State was 20-7-1 for 41 points.

During the course of the 2014-15 regular season there will be six weeks that will feature all 10 WCHA-member teams engaged in league play. Those are November 21-22, Jan. 8-10, Jan. 16-17, Feb. 13-14, Feb. 27-28 and March 6-7, the final weekend of the regular season.

WCHA-member teams will be engaged in a number of in-season tournaments and special events in 2014-15. Alaska Anchorage hosts the annual Kendall Hockey Classic at Sullivan Arena on Oct. 10-11, Alaska hosts the annual Brice Alaska Goal Rush tournament on Oct. 17-18 at Carlson Center in Fairbanks, Lake Superior plays at the Florida College Hockey Classic in Estero, Fla., on Dec. 26-27, Michigan Tech hosts the annual Great Lakes Invitational in Detroit on Dec. 28-29, Bowling Green takes on Robert Morris outdoors at Fifth Third Field in Toledo, Ohio on Jan. 3, Bemidji State and Minnesota State will represent the WCHA against Minnesota and Minnesota Duluth in the North Star College Cup at Xcel Energy Center in Saint Paul on Jan. 23-24, and Michigan Tech will entertain league-rival Bemidji State in the Huskies’ annual Winter Carnival weekend series on Feb. 6-7.

On-ice competition, as well as pursuit of the MacNaughton Cup, launches the weekend of Friday-Sunday, Oct. 3-5 with six of 10 teams in action. The season-opening league series has Lake Superior State and new head coach Damon Whitten welcoming Michigan Tech to Sault Ste. Marie for a Saturday-Sunday set. Up in Fairbanks on Friday, Alaska will host Western Ontario in an exhibition while three other league clubs play on Saturday. Defending WCHA champion Ferris State hosts Big 10 Conference-member Michigan in a single, non-conference tilt in Big Rapids, while in exhibition match ups, Bowling Green entertains Simon Fraser and Alaska Anchorage hosts Western Ontario at the Wells Fargo Sports Complex on the UAA campus.

Week two (Oct. 10-12) will be highlighted by the annual Kendall Hockey Classic in Anchorage and also feature five additional non-conference sets as Alabama Huntsville, Bemidji State and Minnesota State all engage in their initial competition for 2014-15. At the Kendall Hockey Classic at Sullivan Arena on Friday and Saturday, host Alaska Anchorage welcomes fellow WCHA-member Alaska, Maine from the Hockey East Association and Wisconsin from the Big 10. In a quartet of WCHA vs NCHC non-conference series, Alabama Huntsville heads west to take on Colorado College, Bemidji State plays a home-and-home set against North Dakota, Bowling Green takes on Miami in a Friday-Sunday home-and-home, and defending WCHA playoff champion Minnesota State plays at Nebraska Omaha. Also, Lake Superior State will engage Robert Morris of the Atlantic Hockey Association in a two-game non-conference set while Ferris State hosts Wilfrid Laurier in exhibition play.

Highlights of the third weekend of competition, Oct. 17-18, have Alabama Huntsville entertaining Bowling Green in the second WCHA series of the season, Alaska hosting the annual Brice Alaska Goal Rush at Carlson Center in Fairbanks, and Northern Michigan launching its new season against Wisconsin. At the Brice Alaska Goal Rush, the Nanooks will be joined by WCHA-member Alaska Anchorage, Air Force of the Atlantic Hockey Association, and Penn State of the Big 10. In other non-conference action, Northern Michigan will host Wisconsin (Big 10) for two games at the Resch Center in Green Bay, Ferris State will play at ECAC Hockey-member St. Lawrence, and Minnesota State will take on Minnesota Duluth (NCHC) in a home-and-home set.

The Oct. 24-25 weekend brings about the first league series of 2014-15 for Ferris State (vs Michigan Tech), Minnesota State (vs Alabama Huntsville) and Northern Michigan (at Lake Superior) while four teams will play in non-conference sets. Alaska Anchorage journeys to Maine (HEA), Bowling Green heads to Clarkson (ECAC Hockey), Alaska travels to Western Michigan (NCHC) and Bemidji State plays at Minnesota (Big 10).

Then on the final Friday of October (31) and the first Saturday of November (1), Alaska Anchorage, Alaska and Bemidji State mark their initial WCHA match ups. The Seawolves host Lake Superior and the Nanooks head to Bemidji State, while one other conference set that weekend has Bowling Green hosting Minnesota State. Non-conference series find Northern Michigan hosting Alabama Huntsville, Ferris State playing at Michigan State (Big 10) and Michigan Tech hosting Michigan (Big 10).

The remainder of non-conference match ups scheduled for the first half of the 2014-15 season have Alabama Huntsville playing at Air Force (AHA) on Nov. 7-8, Bowling Green engaging Ohio State (Big 10) in a home-and-home on Nov. 14-15, Bemidji State hosting St. Cloud State (NCHC) and Ferris State heading to Wisconsin (Big 10) on Nov. 28-29, Lake Superior at North Dakota (NCHC) on Dec. 5-6, Michigan Tech hosting Minnesota Duluth (NCHC) and Minnesota State hosting Princeton (ECAC Hockey) on Dec. 12-13, Alabama Huntsville venturing to Nebraska Omaha (NCHC) on Dec. 20-21, Lake Superior playing in the Florida College Hockey Classic in Estero, Fla., on Dec. 26-27, and Michigan Tech at the Great Lakes Invitational in Detroit on Dec. 28-29.

During the second half, non-conference schedule highlights include a Saturday, Jan. 3 outdoor game featuring Bowling Green against Robert Morris (AHA) at 12 noon ET at Fifth Third Field in Toledo, Ohio, and the appearance of Bemidji State and Minnesota State in the North Star College Cup in Saint Paul on Jan. 23-24, where they will join Minnesota and Minnesota Duluth. Other key non-conference action finds Michigan Tech at Wisconsin (Big 10) on Jan. 2-3, Bowling Green at Robert Morris (AHA) on Jan. 4, Northern Michigan visiting Penn State (Big 10), and Northern Michigan at Minnesota Duluth (NCHC) on Feb. 6-7. In exhibition competition, Alabama Huntsville hosts the U.S. Under-18 team on Jan. 24-25.

WCHA-member teams went a combined 26-46-12 (.381) in 84 non-conference games in 2013-14, but were an impressive 14-7-5 (.634) in home contests.

The first round of WCHA playoffs for 2014-15 will be contested the weekend of March 13-15, a best-of-three series format that will feature the top eight finishers in regular season competition. The No. 1 seed will host the No. 8 seed, the No. 2 seed will host No. 7, No. 3 will host No. 6 and No. 4 will host No. 5.

Following the first round, the four winners will advance to the 2015 WCHA Final Five, set for March 20-21 at Xcel Energy Center in downtown Saint Paul. The two semi-final match ups on Friday will feature the No. 3 seed vs the No. 2 seed and the No. 4 seed vs the No. 1 seed. On championship Saturday, the championship game for the Broadmoor Trophy and the league's automatic berth into the NCAA tournament will be preceded by a NHL regular season afternoon contest featuring the Minnesota Wild.

"The WCHA Final Five is our conference showcase," said Robertson, "and we will do everything in our power to make that special March 20-21 weekend event a preferred destination for fans of all ages.

"The WCHA Final Five has a tradition of tremendous hockey, Xcel Energy Center is a spectacular venue, and the City of Saint Paul is one of the best hockey towns in America, with wonderful attractions, hotels and restaurants, and great shopping.

"Our long-standing relationship with the great folks at Xcel Energy Center, the Minnesota Wild and Visit Saint Paul are indispensable partners as we work together to orchestrate a fun-filled and memorable championship."

Said Jack Larson, Xcel Energy Center Vice President and General Manager, "We are pleased to again partner with the WCHA on their championship event. We have a long-standing and tremendously successful relationship, and we are committed to building on this foundation for years to come."

Ticket information, game times and additional details on the 2015 WCHA Final Five will be released later this summer.

Xcel Energy Center has a seating capacity of 18,568 is home to the NHL's Minnesota Wild, and has hosted the men's WCHA Final Five (2001-2013, 2015), the NCAA Men's Frozen Four in 2002 and 2011 and NCAA Men's Hockey Regional tournaments in 2010, 2012 and 2014. The 2015 NCAA Men's Division 1 Ice Hockey Championship tournament will open the weekend of March 27-29 with four regionals. On Friday and Saturday, the NCAA Men's Northeast Regional will be played at Verizon Center in Manchester, N.H. and hosted by University of New Hampshire while the NCAA Men's West Regional will be held at Scheels Arena in Fargo, N.D., and hosted by University of North Dakota. Then on Saturday and Sunday, the NCAA Men's East Regional will be played at Dunkin' Donuts Center in Providence, R.I. and hosted by Brown University, while the NCAA Men's Midwest Regional will be played at Compton Family Ice Arena in South Bend, Ind. and hosted by University of Notre Dame.

The four regional winners will then advance to the 2015 NCAA Men's Frozen Four (national championship), to be contested Thursday, April 9 and Saturday, April 11 at TD Garden in Boston, Mass. and hosted by the Hockey East Association.

ABOUT THE WCHA

Home to a record 37 men's national championship since its founding in 1951, the Western Collegiate Hockey Association is a 10-team Division 1 ice hockey conference that covers five time zones and more than 4,200 miles.

Marking its 63rd season of on-ice competition in 2014-15, men's membership consists of University of Alabama in Huntsville (Chargers), University of Alaska Anchorage (Seawolves), University of Alaska (Nanooks), Bemidji State University (Beavers), Bowling Green State University (Falcons), Ferris State University (Bulldogs), Lake Superior State University (Lakers), Michigan Technological University (Huskies), Minnesota State University (Mavericks) and Northern Michigan University (Wildcats).

In addition to the record 37 NCAA titles won by WCHA-member teams, the league is also home to a record 16 Hobey Baker Memorial Award Winners, and more than 350 All-Americans, 450 NHL Draft picks and 110 Olympians.

WCHA REGULAR SEASON CHAMPIONSHIP AND MacNAUGHTON CUP

Dating back over 100 years to its original purchase in 1913, handcrafted of pure silver, standing three-feet high, and weighing more than 40 pounds, the MacNaughton Cup is the shining symbol of the Western Collegiate Hockey Association and its long-time standing as a premier collegiate conference since its founding in 1951.

The MacNaughton Cup is awarded annually to the winner of the regular season title, and as a traveling trophy, is on display each season at the home of the previous year's winner. Beginning in 2005-06, the WCHA also began awarding a silver replica MacNaughton Cup to the regular season champion. Ferris State was the most recent regular season champion in 2013-14.

The MacNaughton Cup has traveled a long and winding road since its initial purchase in 1913 by the Calumet (MI) and Hecla Mining Company, but officially settled into a home with the original WCHA (MCHL/WIHL) in 1951.

In 1913, James MacNaughton, then president of Calumet and Hecla, Inc., and an avid supporter of amateur ice hockey, authorized the president of the American Amateur Hockey Association to purchase a cup (he said the price didn't matter) and present it to the Association's championship team at the end of the season. The first winner was a team from the Cleveland (Ohio) Athletic Club. The MacNaughton Cup remained with the AAHA until it ceased operations in 1920.

From 1921 to 1950, the Cup was fought for by semi-pro and intermediate hockey aggregations in Michigan's Copper Country. In 1951, the cup was donated by Calumet and Hecla, Inc., through the generosity of Mr. & Mrs. Endicott R. Lovell, to the newly-founded Midwest Collegiate Hockey League, forerunner of the WCHA. Lovell, president of the company at that time and the son-in-law of James MacNaughton, was also a ardent supporter of amateur hockey.

The MCHL chose – in the original spirit – to award the trophy to its regular season champion. The MacNaughton Cup remained a part of the MCHL/WIHL until the league disbanded in March of 1958 for one year. In 1959-60, the seven original teams resumed formal competition under the new name of Western Collegiate Hockey Association.

The MacNaughton Cup has gone to the regular season winner on all but seven occasions since 1951. From 1962-65, the MacNaughton Cup was presented to the league playoff winner. In 1981-82, 1982-83 and 1983-84, the trophy left the league with Cup custodian Michigan Tech and was presented to the champion of the CCHA.

WCHA PLAYOFF CHAMPIONSHIP AND BROADMOOR TROPHY

The second of the WCHA's two major championship trophies for men's competition is the Broadmoor Trophy, which has been awarded annually since 1985 to the winner of the conference's post-season championship tournament – known today as the WCHA Final Five.

The history of the Broadmoor Trophy dates to 1981, when it was first presented to the conference by the world-renowned Broadmoor Hotel and Resort Complex of Colorado Springs, Colo. For the first three seasons of its partnership with the WCHA (1981-1984) – and due to the departure of league member and MacNaughton Cup (regular season championship trophy) custodian Michigan Tech to the CCHA – the Broadmoor Trophy was presented to the Association's regular season champion. But when the Huskies returned to the WCHA in 1984 – with the MacNaughton Cup in hand – the Broadmoor Trophy became, and has remained since, the symbol of the league's post-season tournament championship. Minnesota State is the reigning WCHA playoff champion, having captured the title at the 2014 WCHA Final Five at Van Andel Arena in Grand Rapids, Mich.

In March of 2010, in conjunction with the annual WCHA Final Five, the Association unveiled a striking new Broadmoor Trophy. The new bronze cast trophy, created by Blue Ribbon Trophies & Awards of Colorado Springs, Colo., is a recreation of the famous Broadmoor Hotel. Long an ardent supporter of college hockey, the Broadmoor Hotel included the former Broadmoor World Arena, which hosted the NCAA Ice Hockey Championship a total of 11 times between 1948 and 1969.

There are a total of three Broadmoor trophies. The largest will be on display at Xcel Energy Center in Saint Paul in conjunction with the WCHA Final Five, one is a traveling trophy, and one is awarded to the winning team each year as a permanent addition to their trophy case.
