WCHA Issues Suspension to UMD Coach

MADISON, Wis. – The Western Collegiate Hockey Association today announced that head coach Shannon Miller of the University of Minnesota Duluth has been suspended for one game due to a violation of the WCHA Code of Conduct.

The action was taken by the league's executive committee after a review of an incident that occurred following a game versus Ohio State on November 26.

Miller will be required to serve the one-game suspension in the Bulldogs' upcoming Dec. 16 game at Minnesota State.
